Eighth District—J. Young Brown, Dem.
Ninth District—J. Young Brown, Dem.
Tenth District—J. Young Brown, Dem.

In the First, Fifth, and Tenth Districts Democratic candidates had no organized opposition, and the defeat of Capt. Jackson, who started in the race with 1000 registered voters, by the only Congressional Union candidate in the election, was a real surprise. The Sixth District was won by the Uchi candidate, and the Seventh and Eighth by the Dem.
